Paulette M. Gray served as President of the Illinois Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers from 2014-15. Attorney Gray has limited her practice to family law since her graduation from The John Marshall Law School. Attorney Gray received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. During law school Attorney Gray was employed by Metropolitan Family Services (Legal Aid Bureau) where she handled family law matters for indigent clients. Upon graduating from law school, Attorney Gray worked for a large Chicago firm until 1998 when she relocated her practice to McHenry County. Since then she has been active in bar associations both at the county and state level, as well as within the Illinois chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. Attorney Gray is “AV” rated by Martindale-Hubbell, which is the highest available rating.
